MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

Collegiate Department.

CANDIDATES for admission into the Freshman Class must be well acquainted with Arithmetic; Geography; Simple Equations in Algebra; Outlines of Ancient and Modern History; the English, Latin and Greek Grammars (McClintock and Crook's First Books in Latin and Greek); Cæsar's Commentaries (two books); Virgil's Æneid (four books); Xenophon's Anabasis (two books); Roman Antiquities and Mythology; Greek Reader.

Candidates for any other class will be examined on the studies previously pursued by such class. Candidates for the Partial Course will be examined only as to their qualifications to pursue that course.

It is recommended, however, that all whose circumstances will justify it, should prosecute the full Collegiate Course. This Course long experience has proved to be best suited to accomplish the great end of education—the development and discipline of the mind.

The completeness of a student's preparation for admission will materially affect the whole of his subsequent course, as many of the elementary studies cannot receive that attention in College which their importance demands. It is earnestly desired, therefore, that candidates adhere rigidly to the course of Preparatory Studies, and that they endeavor to perfect themselves in these rather than anticipate studies which can be pursued to much greater advantage in Collège. It is, in general, poor economy to attempt to prepare for admission into one of the higher classes; as it is reasonable to suppose that, with the facilities afforded at College, students will be advanced there more rapidly and thoroughly than they could be by teachers less favorably situated. The Grammar School of the Institution presents peculiar advantages to those who wish to be thoroughly prepared for admission.

No one will be admitted to the Freshman Class until he has completed his fourteenth year, nor to a higher class without a corresponding age. And it is desirable that the candidates should be still older, that thus they may be fitted, by greater maturity of mind and stability of character, the better to appreciate their studies, and to exercise that self-control which is necessary for the student.

Candidates for admission must produce testimonials of good moral character; if from another College, a certificate of honorable dismissal. They may present themselves for examination at any time; but at the commencement of a session, or during the week after Christmas, is preferred.

The instruction in PHILOSOPHY and ENGLISH LITERATURE is given partly by recitations in History, Rhetoric, Logic, Political Economy, Metaphysics, and Constitutional Law, and partly by Lectures on the English Language and Literature, the Philosophy of History and Poetry, and the History of Philosophy. Practical exercises in writing and speaking also receive special attention in this department.

The course in the NATURAL SCIENCES includes recitations from text books, and lectures accompanied by illustrations and experiments. The facilities of this department for full and efficient instruction are unusually ample. The apparatus is extensive and valuable, and annually increasing. The Cabinet of Natural History is abundantly supplied with specimens illustrative of the various productions of the globe.

In the MATHEMATICAL department there are daily recitations. In the senior year lectures are given on the theories and applications of the Higher Branches.

In the CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT, it frequently happens, that either different authors, or different portions of the same author, are read by successive classes; but these alterations do not affect the amount of Greek and Latin required of those who apply for admission to the higher classes. The books of reference employed throughout the course are Anthon's Classical Dictionary, Zumpt's Latin Grammar Kuehner's or Buttman's Greek Grammar, Ramshorn's Latin Synonyms, Eschenberg's Manual of Classical Literature, Andrew's Latin Lexicon, and Liddell and Scott's Greek Lexicon.

In the department of MODERN LANGUAGES it is the aim of the Professor, so far as practicable, to carry on conversation with the class in the language studied. The books of reference recommended are Surrenne's French Pronouncing Dictionary, Abrege du Dictionnaire de l'Academie Francaise, Heyse's German Grammar, Adler's German Dictionary.

Where the subjects are susceptible of it, the students are required to make an analysis (generally in writing) of the works which they study, and to give at their daily recitations, as well as at the public examinations, a connected view of the subject, in their own language and without the aid of the instructor, except on points not fully treated by the author; thus cultivating the powers of memory, thought and speech.

Public examinations of all the classes are held at the close of each session. Students who have not made satisfactory proficiency are then required to make up deficiencies by extra study during vacation, or prevented from advancing with their class. The Seniors are examined four weeks before Commencement, on the entire College course.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The College Year is divided into two Sessions, the first beginning on the second Thursday of September, and ending on the Wednesday preceding Christmas: the second beginning four weeks from the termination of the first, and ending at Commencement, on the second Thursday in July.

VACATIONS from Commencement, to the second Thursday of September. From the Wednesday before Christmas, four weeks.

A charge of $3 00 a year extra is made on all the students for Modern Languages. Thus, for $12 00, the student has the advantage of four years' instruction in the French and German Languages,—affording him a rare opportunity for proficiency in these studies, and at a price unusually low.

Students lodging in College pay for room rent from $2 67 to $3 33 for the first session, and from 5 33 to $6 67 for the second. Those who do not employ the Janitor pay FIFTY CENTS per session for keeping the halls in order.

These bills are paid to the Treasurer in advance each session.

RESIDENCE, BOARD, &amp;c.

Students not resident in town are required to lodge in the College, and furnish their own Rooms. All necessary furniture can be purchased here at lower prices than abroad. When the student leaves, it may be sold for what it is worth.

No Boarding Department is kept in the College. Students board at such private boarding houses in town as are approved of by the Faculty. The price of board varies from $2 25 to $2 50. If Students prefer to board themselves, the expense may be greatly reduced.

Oak wood can be had for $3 00 per cord, and hickory for $4 00. Coal delivered at the College is $5 00 per ton. Washing is $1 50 per month, or 37½ cents per dozen.

SUMMARY OF ANNUAL EXPENSES.

As the College tuition is now for the most part paid by Scholarships, the necessary expenses for a year will vary from $126,00 to $144,00.

In the above summary no estimate is made for Text Books, Clothes, Travelling Expenses and Incidentals. These of course will vary according to the habits and circumstances of the student.

MANAGEMENT OF FUNDS.

As economy is essential to the moral and literary character, both of the Institution and its members, the greatest care will be taken to restrict the expenditures of students. The method adopted for this purpose is presented in the following paragraph, to which the attention of parents and guardians is invited.

All students (except those who reside in town, and at the discretion of the faculty, those who are of age,) are required to have a Patron, to take charge of their funds and disburse the same. The Statutes of the College require him to be selected from among the Faculty, and allow him to charge for his services a commission of three per cent. on all disbursements. As the success of this system depends mainly on the co-operation of the parents and guardians, they are earnestly requested to signify to the Patron, at the beginning of each session, whether their sons or wards are to be allowed to incur any other than the necessary expenses stated above, and if so, for what articles and to what amount;—that they will inspect minutely the Monthly Account of disbursements sent to them, and communicate promptly to the Patron any objection they may have against them; and especially that they will forward all funds directly to the Patron, as a student who receives money from any other source than from his Patron, or who fails in case he does so receive, immediately to deliver it to his Patron, is regarded as guilty of a high offence. Remittances should be made either in cash, or by draft or check upon Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, payable to the Patron's order.

The faithful observance of this system may not in every instance, secure all the economy desired, but it will doubtless be more successful than the ordinary method of allowing the students the uncontrolled use of money.

ASTRONOMICAL OBSERVATORY.

The facilities of the College for instruction in the department of Astronomy have recently been greatly increased by the erection of an Astronomical Observatory and the purchase of an Achromatic Telescope manufactured by Henry Fitz of New York. The Telescope has an object glass of 5 inches with a focal distance of 7 feet, is Equatorially Mounted, and furnished with Right Ascension and Declination Circles and Clock work; and is adapted to Scientific research, as well as instruction. To this will soon be added a superioir Transit now in process of manufacture.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The government of the Institution is mild and parental. It is designed to secure attention to study and correctness of deportment, not so much by the enforcement of rigid rules, as by cultivating in the student a taste for intellectual pursuits and virtuous habits. But while youthful indiscretion will be treated with lenity, Incurable Indolence, Bad Morals, and Pecuniary Extravagance will not be suffered to remain to exert their corrupting influences within our walls.

A faithful record is kept of the standing and deportment of each student, and a report sent monthly to his parent or guardian.

TEXT BOOKS.

All the necessary Text Books and Stationery are supplied at the College at a cost below the city retail prices.
